

Depot Series

The Depot Series™ vapour recovery units is a range of fully standardised units for small and medium sized installations – typically truck loading facilities. After delivery to site, the new vapour recovery unit can often be installed and commissioned in 8-10 working days. Cool Sorption has more than 35 years of experience and a record covering more than 320 VRUs installed worldwide.